

Dear Patient,

Welcome to systemic dentistry. Your commitment to your own well-being has brought you to Dr. Alireza Panahpour, DDS, Inc. My staff and I are here to be of service to you.

If you have been on a long and arduous journey seeking help for dental issues, I would like to assure you that you have reached your destination. If you or your child are visiting a dentist for the first time, I would like to assure you that you are starting off on the right foot: minimally-invasive, no-drilling, biomimetic dentistry that takes the whole bodymind into account. I practice only systemic dentistry using these methods whenever possible.

Dr. Alireza Panahpour, DDS, Inc. is more than a dental practice. The company represents my life work and my commitment to bringing the best of new trends and technologies in systemic dentistry to my patients. My practice is rooted in a holistic philosophy in which all aspects of life are connected in a most miraculous way. Along with a DDS degree from the University of Pacific, School of Dentistry and Doctor of Dental Surgery degree, I have taken advanced courses in biomimetic dentistry, advanced oral surgery, advanced neurobiology, ozone therapy, plasma-rich protein therapy, cold laser therapy, and structural medicine (sometimes called Chirodantics). I also practice Autonomic Response Testing (ART). I have been blessed to have worked with numerous esteemed doctors and healers worldwide.

My staff and I are committed to providing you with the most advanced and effective healing modalities possible. We use the highest quality products and therapies, including natural herbal and homeopathic remedies and ultra low-dose imaging instead of traditional x-rays.

Due to our eclectic variety of treatments and homeopathic care we expect your curiosity and questions. Please feel free to ask us anything you deem necessary in order to better understand your healing process and to be a partner in it. In fact, we encourage it!

We are here to provide excellent service. We appreciate and respect your trust in us. We promise to provide you with excellent, compassionate care.

Sincerely,

Dr. Alireza Panahpour, DDS, Inc.
